Park in the large back lot and look for conference signs.

Who May Attend: Student Council members and other leadership groups in your school

Presenter: Doug Erickson, MASSP Coordinator of Student Activities

Doug is a former middle-level teacher at Palatine Middle School in Palatine, Illinois. He has done many one-day leadership workshops for middle level/junior high students in Minnesota. He has also presented to middle-level students and advisors at the National LEAD conferences. Doug is the Earl Reum National Workshop Presenter of the Year and a Warren E. Shull Advisor of the Year finalist. Currently, Doug teaches a leadership class at Orono High School.

Conference Schedule:

9:00 a.m. Registration

9:15 a.m. Introductions

9:30 a.m. Presentation of “Leadership Safari”

Doug will take the middle level students through a series of leadership activities that will analyze their leadership styles. Through this analysis, the students will be able to utilize their strengths to make their councils more effective and their schools a better place to be.

11:45 a.m. Lunch

12:30 p.m. Debriefing and Application. Students will sit down with their councils or leadership groups and analyze the strengths of their own school.

1:30 p.m. Final comments

We hope you will take advantage of this low-cost opportunity to receive content and start your students on a pattern of meeting young leaders from across the state.
